Ice Show Dress Rehearsal

Dress rehearsal for the ice show is on Thursday, March 25, 2010. The exact time will not be known until the arena schedule is done, but it will likely start between 5:00 and 5:30pm.

What happens during dress rehearsal? Rehearsal begins with all skaters, in their costumes, learning their parts for the Grand Finale. Once the coaches are satisfied that the skaters are ready for the Grand Finale, they will guide the skaters through the planned schedule. Once your child is done skating with his/her group, he/she can leave.

If you have any questions at all about dress rehearsal, please ask your child's ice show routine coach.

Summer Skating 2010

Registration forms for summer skating will be available for pick up at pictures.

Sweatshirts & T-shirts

Shirts ordered by March 6th will be ready for pick up during pictures. Orders placed after March 6th will be ready for pick up at dress rehearsal or later. Thank you for supporting IFFSC.

Ice Show Tickets—who needs them?

Skaters do not need tickets for the ice show, but parents and siblings, who are not skaters, do. The Club offers weekend and day passes for the following groups: adult (18 and older), senior (55 and over)/child (4-13), student (14-17).

Advanced tickets may be purchased at City Drug, SuperValu, or Super One's Espresso Lane. Tickets will also be available for purchase during dress rehearsal.

Tickets purchased at the door are $1 higher than the advanced ticket prices.
